Press Release

Chihuly XIV

October 2, 2009 - January 31, 2010

Persian Chandelier

Dale Chihuly will be mounting his fourteenth solo exhibition in Columbus with Tom Hawk, Director of Hawk Galleries, titled Chihuly XIV, featuring the “Picasso of glass” most recent sculpture. Hawk Galleries feels privileged to showcase the artists’ masterful works, which are currently featured in the permanent collections of nearly 200 museums worldwide.

A couple of featured pieces at Hawk will be Chihuly’s last Waterford crystal Chandelier and another visually dynamic and very rare Persian Chandelier (see above), created with vividly-colored, blown glass “spinners,” similar in form to his installation at Bellagio in Las Vegas. Chihuly has recently been exploring a variety of works in black glass, and so the artist will be featuring a Black Sconce, Black Macchia, and Black Venetians. Chihuly’s Hawk exhibition will also feature Sealife Stoppers, a Persian Wall Installation and a Drawing Wall composed of twenty individual paintings. Rounding out the show, Hawk will feature Chihuly’s Studio Editions and prints. To view more Chihuly sculptures and drawings go to hawkgalleries.com.

Hawk has also guided numerous families and businesses in commissioning unique works by the Louvre-caliber artist, where the journey is a gratifying part of the final sculpture. Chihuly is particularly adept at designing works that compliment homes and businesses both indoors and out, as he studied interior design and architecture early in his career.
